2018/4. To consider and approve the Parish Councils response to the A358 consultation

Stoke St Mary Parish Council formal response to the A358 consultation was discussed tonight in an open forum for any input. Mike Farrell read the document produced out to the room for any amendments to be made. At this stage suggestions were made and agreed by all present before being taken into the document or the amendments being made.

The report talks about the route options, the consultation process and other aspects to be considered such as visual impacts, drainage and flooding, amenities and communities.

The full report is available online at the parish council website.
